There is adequate supervision, where required, to ensure procedures are correctly adhered to.

Due to the changing advice on Covid-19, managers should ensure they review safe working procedures and protocols daily, until such time when it is deemed unnecessary.

There is an adequate supply of disposable PPE, as per specific task requirements, and all staff provided with instruction in the correct use and fitment:

- Public Health England and NHS YouTube video, Covid-19: putting on and removing personal protective equipment (PPE) – a guide for care homes

The majority of staff in education, childcare and children's social care settings will not require PPE beyond what they would normally need for their work, even if they are not always able to maintain distance of 2 metres from others. See Visitors Section 7

PPE is only needed in a very small number of cases:

- children, young people and learners whose care routinely already involves the use of PPE due to their intimate care needs should continue to receive their care in the same way

- PPE should be worn if a distance of 2 metres cannot be maintained from any child, young person or other learner displaying coronavirus symptoms

Children are split into 'Class Bubbles' with no classroom holding more than 30 pupils as per government guidelines.

- Pupils will then be kept in their Class ('Bubbles') and should not mix with other groups during the day.
- The group should be allocated one classroom to contain the potential spread of the virus until restrictions are lifted
- Wherever possible, staff supervising a cohort should also remain within this 'bubble' Note the exception to this:
  - Music
  - PE
  - Spanish
  - Breakfast Club
  - Intervention (2 metre distance needs to be in place for all of the above).
- Teachers should ensure that all staff and students wash their hands regularly throughout the day particularly when eating and at the start and end of activities.
- Playtimes will be managed to ensure students keep a safe distance.
- Equipment i.e. keyboards, laptops, I pads, etc. should be cleaned throughout the school day

Guidance

Music

Music teaching in schools and colleges, including singing, and playing wind and brass instruments in groups

When planning music provision for the next academic year, schools should consider additional specific safety measures. Although singing and playing wind and brass instruments do not currently appear to represent a significantly higher risk than routine speaking and breathing at the same volume, there is now some evidence that additional risk can build from aerosol transmission with volume and with the combined numbers of individuals within a confined space. This is particularly evident for singing and shouting, but with appropriate safety mitigation and consideration, singing, wind and brass teaching can still take place. Measures to take follow in the next sections.

Playing outdoors

Playing instruments and singing in groups should take place outdoors wherever possible. If indoors, consider limiting the numbers in relation to the space.

Playing indoors

If indoors, use a room with as much space as possible, for example, larger rooms; rooms with high ceilings are expected to enable dilution of aerosol transmission. If playing indoors, limiting the numbers to account for ventilation of the space and the ability to social distance. It is important to ensure good

		ventilation. Advice on this can be found in Health and Safety Executive guidance on air conditioning and ventilation during the coronavirus outbreak. Singing, wind and brass playing  Singing, wind and brass playing should not take place in larger groups such as choirs and ensembles, or assemblies unless significant space, natural airflow (at least 10l/s/person for all present, including audiences) and strict social distancing and mitigation as described below can be maintained. Social distancing  In the smaller groups where these activities can take place, schools should observe strict social distancing between each singer and player, and between singers and players, and any other people such as conductors, other musicians, or accompanists. Current guidance is that if the activity is face-to-face and without mitigating actions, 2 metres is appropriate. Seating positions  Pupils should be positioned back-to-back or side-to-side when playing or singing (rather than face-to-face) whenever possible. Position wind and brass players so that the air from their instrument does not blow into another player. Microphones  Use microphones where possible or encourage singing quietly.  By considering and adopting these cumulative risk mitigation measures, the overall risk will be reduced. Physical Activities in Schools;  Physical activity in schools  Schools have the flexibility to decide how physical education, sport and physical activity will be provided whilst following the measures in their system of controls.  Sports whose national governing bodies have developed guidance under the principles of the government’s guidance on team sport and been approved by the government are permitted. Schools must only provide team sports on the list available at return to recreational team sport framework.  Pupils should be kept in consistent groups, sports equipment thoroughly cleaned between each use by different individual groups, and contact sports avoided.  Outdoor sports should be prioritised where possible, and large indoor spaces used where it is not, maximising natural ventilation flows (through opening windows and doors or using air conditioning systems wherever possible) distancing between pupils and paying scrupulous attention to cleaning and hygiene. This is particularly important in a sports setting because of the way in which people breathe during exercise. External facilities can also be used in line with government guidance for the use of, and travel to and from, those facilities.  Schools should refer to the following guidance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• guidance on the phased return of sport and recreation and guidance from Sport England for grassroots sport</li> <li>• advice from organisations such as the Association for Physical Education and the Youth Sport Trust</li> </ul>	LOW  Under current guidance for COVID-19

- guidance from Swim England on school swimming and water safety lessons available at returning to pools guidance documents
*Schools are able to work with external coaches, clubs and organisations for curricular and extra-curricular activities where they are satisfied that it is safe to do so. Schools should consider carefully how such arrangements can operate within their wider protective measures.
 Activities such as active miles, making break times and lessons active and encouraging active travel help to enable pupils to be physically active while encouraging physical distancing.*

Cleaning of hands is encouraged when changing classrooms / areas for different activities.

Classes should be kept together and mixing with other classes minimised, as much as possible.

Classroom layouts have been adapted to allow for effective teaching through L-Shape, Rows and U-Shape seating arrangements.

For individual and very frequently used equipment, such as pencils and pens, staff and pupils have their own which are not shared. Every child will have their own bag provided by school with all stationary needed, plus other resources such as exercise books, pens, etc. Pupils parents have been informed that pupils may not bring in their own stationary, pencil cases, or other personal items such as toys, sports equipment (e.g. footballs), etc.

Resources shared between bubbles, such as sports, art and science equipment, should be cleaned frequently and meticulously and always between use by different bubbles, or rotated to allow them to be left unused and out of reach for a period of 48hrs (72hrs for plastics) between use by different bubbles.

All unnecessary items are removed from classrooms and teaching environments as much as possible.

Classes are to take place in the same setting wherever possible to limit the numbers moving around the school.

Classroom activities planned and structured; where possible and appropriate classes will be held outdoors.

Pupils regularly reminded to maintain social distancing where possible.
